The Daily Argus.

ROCK ISLAND, ILLINOIS. Counted Out. e the halls of legislation

With a people's execration,
Close in grief the court supreme;
Justice there's an idle dream.
Traitors (steeped in crime and fraud)
To their country and their God,
Court, and congress, with "one voice,"
"Counted out" the "nation's choice,"

Fold the ermine on the shelf;
Soiled with perjury, bribed with pelf,
The "Jeffries" of the present day,
Bradley well hath earned his pay
Sold his conscience, stained his soul,
Reached the pirate's hated goal,
By his perjured votes and voice,
"Counted out" the, "nation's choice."

Low'r your flags; and crape your drums; Now the base usurper comes. Con es to sway a "stolen sceptre," Like a gaunt and hideous spectre, Clothed in forgery, fraud and sin; By base robbers "counted in," "Counted in" by "cight 'gainst seven," 'Gainst the will of earth and heaven.

Now we see, with direful awe, ramped justice, outraged law. Freedom doomed by victous traitors And victorious conspirators. Banded placemen hunting spoils, Hold the nation in their toils, And through Bradley's vote and voice, "Counted out" the "nation's choice.
